

PHOTO BY AARON SUTTEN PHOTOGRAPHY

RICHMOND
Symphony

Musical Free-for-All

The Richmond Symphony is partnering with the Richmond Public Library to present a free day of youth oriented musical activities, performances and classes culminating in a free Richmond Symphony Community

Concert featuring the Orchestra, Associate Conductor Erin Freeman and student performer

Brendon Elliott.

Brendon Elliott

2009 winner of the Richmond Symphony Orchestra League Concerto Contest

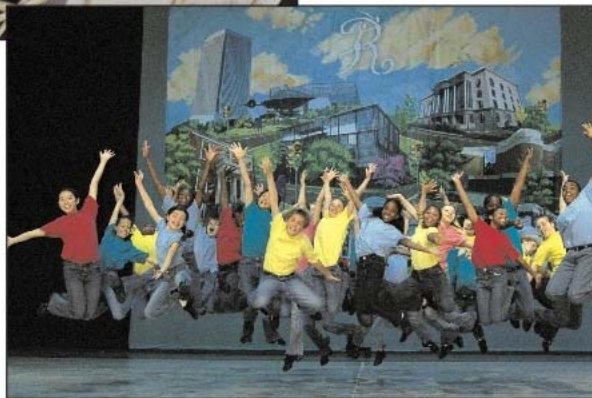

Richmond Symphony's Youth Orchestra Program

Day's activities sponsored in part by Friends of the Richmond Public Library—celebrating its 50th anniversary

- All activities and concerts are free
- An "Instrument Petting Zoo" for all ages
- Have your picture taken playing a musical instrument
- Musical demonstrations and youth performances
- Storytelling & Art Activities
- Youth Computer Composition Classes
- Instrument care & tuning sessions
- Suzuki Violin Classes – Violins provided!

For details, visit www.richmondsymphony.com

Richmond Ballet's Minds In Motion TEAM XXL

The Happy Lucky Combo

Saturday, March 28

Open Rehearsal: 10 a.m.– public welcome

Musical Activities: 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Richmond Symphony Concert: 4 p.m.

Richmond Public Library

101 East Franklin Street

Support "Orchestras Feeding America" & bring a canned good to the Musical Free-for-All!